“*Criminal Law –
A Murder Investigation*”
CLE AFTER HOURS

Tuesday, February 21, 2018– 5:30 – 8:00 p.m.

Guest Speaker

Bruce L. Castor, Jr., Partner - Rogers Castor

Program Objective: Mr. Castor will describe how a high-profile murder case is handled from the time law enforcement learns of the killing(s) through the trial of the case. You will learn a unique style of investigation that will lead to successful courtroom outcomes due to the attention of developing evidence from the moment the crime was discovered. Learn how the detectives and prosecutors work together from the onset of a case, how all decisions “in the field” on the collection of evidence, forensics, search warrants, interrogations, wiretaps, media, etc., are all designed to close off defenses at the earliest possible stage of an investigation. Mr. Castor will walk through cases from news headlines that many will remember.
