ANATOMY of a SEPTA Lawsuit

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Barry W. Smiley, Esquire
SEPTA Transit Authority

SEPTA, sued again! Why does the largest transit authority in the city gets sued an average of once a day, every year? How does it affect the community and your commute?

Mr. Smiley will provide an overview of the stages of the lawsuit process in the Philadelphia courts against SEPTA. He will also review the new law called the "Fair Share Act" that ensures SEPTA will not be liable for large payouts unless it is ruled to a much larger extent. In addition, he will speak about "The Anatomy of a Lawsuit" from SEPTA's perspective and will address the handling of personal injury and property damage litigation by SEPTA's Legal Division and an exhaustive reference that SEPTA deals with on a daily basis.

IF YOU ARE A SEPTA RIDER, DON'T MISS THIS VALUABLE INFORMATION THAT MAY AFFECT YOUR COMMUTE.
